• PERSONAL PROFILE

I am an independent, hardworking and creative individual who is also reliable and has developed a responsible and ethical approach to the tasks that I undertake or any given situation I am placed in. I am excellent at working and communicating in a team. I believe in integrity and strong moral values and that an individual should strive to be successful not only in their career but also in their personal life. I also believe that everything you put your energy into, you can be successful in it if you do it with a positive mindset and with hard work.

• CAREER OR GOAL OBJECTIVE

I am looking for an opportunity to grow and learn in my field of study. I understand that there is still much to learn, and I am willing and eager to learn new skills. I like to solve complex problems and I try to solve them in a creative, efficient way. When a problem grips me, I push myself to find a solution and I will not be satisfied until it is resolved. I am a hardworking, focused and disciplined individual with a big amount of willpower. I have the correct amount of computer, communication and teamwork skills to be appointed to this position.

• INTEREST AND HOBBIES

Music: I do enjoy listening to music, but I also play instruments such as the guitar.

Reading: I enjoy reading and I try to read when I have time.

Sport: I enjoy watching sport, but also playing it casually. I enjoy playing any form of team sport for my hostel.

Technology: I enjoy fixing any broken technology and I like to take things apart to see how they work. I built my first personal computer when I was in grade three and it has been a passion ever since to tinker with technology. I also watch technology news to stay on top of any new technology in the industry.

Welding: I participated in my residence's JOOL/RAG building team where I learned a lot and enjoyed welding.

Woodworking: I enjoy working with wood and building furniture for my family and friends.
